

Women's March Malaysia (WMMY)

Collection Overview

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of placards from the Women's March Malaysia. There are digital photographs of placards from WMMY 2020 and physical placards from WMMY 2024 and 2025, archived at MDA. Women's March Malaysia (WMMY) was held annually in Kuala Lumpur around March 8th to commemorate International Women's Day. The movement is led by the WMMY organising committee, a volunteer collective that advocates for gender equality and justice.

Dates

2020, 2024, and 2025.

Identifier

2020.05.A, 2020.05.B, and 2020.05.C.

Creator

The collection is curated by the archive.

Extent

- Digital photographs of WMMY 2020 placards.
- 2 drawers housing WMMY 2024 and 2025 placards.

Notes

- Item Inventory is available upon request
- Digital and digitised materials are available on Malaysia Design Archive Visual Database:
<https://search.malaysiadesignarchive.org/collections/womens-march-malaysia/>

Contents and Arrangements

Series 1: WMMY 2020

Type: Digital photographs and video
Quantity: 131 items
Date: 2020
Themes: The themes found are child marriage, women's political and economic participation, patriarchy, capitalism, toxic masculinity, intersectionality, climate justice, gender-based violence, reproductive labour, law and justice, Orang Asli's rights and LGBTQ+ rights.

Series 2: WMMY 2024

Type: Placards
Quantity: 36 items
Date: 2024
Themes: The themes found are women's reproductive rights, intersectionality, patriarchy, Palestine solidarity, women's political and economic participation, gender-based violence, social media meme culture, law and social justice, misogyny, child marriage and LGBTQ+ rights.

Series 3: WMMY 2025

Type: Placards
Quantity: 27 items
Date: 2025
Themes: The themes found are diversity and equity, child marriage. LGBTQ+ rights, patriarchy, social media meme culture and climate justice.